PRACTICE: BECAUSE OF / ALTHOUGH

Join both sentences by using because of

1) I missed my flight. There was too much traffic.

I missed the my flight because of the traffic.

2) The plane sat on the runway for an hour. There was a lot of fog.

3) The flight was rough. There were a lot of clouds.

4) I couldn't sleep. There was too much noise.

Join both sentences by using although

1) The roads were icy. I didn't have any problems.

Although the roads were icy, I didn't have any problems.

2) The flight was smooth. I felt sick.

3) It was raining. We went for a walk.

4) I slept on the plane. I'm still sleepy.